30. (1) Offence to disclose identity, etc. of persons being investigated

Any person who knowing or suspecting that an investigation in respect of an offence alleged or suspected to have been committed under Part II is taking place, without lawful authority or reasonable excuse, discloses to –

- (a) the person who is the subject of the investigation (the “subject person”) the fact that he is so subject or any details of such investigation; or
- (b) the public, a section of the public or any particular person the identity of the subject person or the fact that the subject person is so subject or any details of such investigation, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine of $20,000 and to imprisonment for 1 year.

- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply as regards disclosure of any of the descriptions mentioned in that subsection where, in connection with such investigation –

- (a) a warrant has been issued for the arrest of the subject person;
- (b) the subject person has been arrested whether with or without warrant;
- (c) the subject person has been required to furnish a statutory declaration or a statement in writing by a notice served on him under section 14(1)(a) or (b);
- (d) a restraining order has been served on any person under section 14C(3);
- (e) the residence of the subject person has been searched under a warrant issued under section 17; or
- (f) the subject person has been required to surrender to the Commissioner any travel document in his possession by a notice served on him under section 17A.

- (3) Without affecting the generality of the expression “reasonable excuse” in subsection (1) a person has a reasonable excuse as regards disclosure of any of the descriptions mentioned in that subsection if, but only to the extent that, the disclosure reveals –

- (a) any unlawful activity, abuse of power, serious neglect of duty, or other serious misconduct by the Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner or any officer of the Commission; or
- (b) a serious threat to public order or to the security of Fiji or to the health or safety of the public.

Protection of informers

30A. (1) Save as provided in subsection (2) –

- (a) no information for an offence under this Promulgation shall be admitted in evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding; and
- (b) no witness in any civil or criminal proceeding shall be obliged –
 - (i) to disclose the name or address of any informer who has given information to the Commissioner with respect to an offence under this Promulgation or of any person who has assisted the Commissioner in any way with respect to such an offence; or
 - (ii) to answer any question if the answer thereto would lead, or would tend to lead, to discovery of the name or address of such informer or person, if, in either case, such informer or person is not himself a witness in such proceeding, and if any books, documents or papers which are in evidence or liable to inspection in any civil or criminal proceeding contain an entry in which any such informer or person is named or described or which might lead to his discovery, the court shall cause all such passages to be concealed from view or to be obliterated so far as may be necessary to protect the informer or such person from discovery.

- (2) If in any proceeding before a court for an offence under this Promulgation the court, after full inquiry into the case, is satisfied that an informer willfully made a material statement which he knew or believed to be false or did not believe to be true, or if in any other proceeding a court is of opinion that justice cannot be fully done between the parties thereto without disclosure of the name of an informer or a person who has assisted Commissioner, the court may permit inquiry and require full disclosure concerning the informer or such person.

Failure to report an offence¹⁹

30B. Any person, in respect of an offence under sections 3 to 9 -

¹⁹ The Promulgation is amended by inserting a new section 30B after Section 30A in accordance with Section 10 of the Prevention of Bribery (Amendment) Act 2016

- (b) from whom an advantage is solicited or accepted; or
- (c) who knows or has reasonable cause to believe that such offering, soliciting or accepting of an advantage has taken place, without lawful authority or reasonable excuse, fails to report such act to the Commission or to the Fiji Police Force as soon as reasonably practicable, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine of $20,000 and to imprisonment for 5 years.

Consent of Commissioner or of Director of Public Prosecutions required for prosecution of offence under Part II

- 31. (1) No prosecution for an offence under Part II shall be instituted unless brought by the Commissioner or by the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section a person may be charged with an offence under Part II and may be arrested therefore, or a warrant for his arrest may be issued and executed, and any such person may be remanded in custody or on bail notwithstanding that the consent of the Commissioner or of the Director of Public Prosecutions to the institution of a prosecution for the offence has not been obtained, but no such person shall be remanded in custody or on bail for longer than 3 days on such charge unless in the meantime the consent of the Commissioner or of the Director of Public Prosecutions aforesaid has been obtained.
- (3) When a person is brought before a magistrate before the Commissioner or of the Director of Public Prosecutions has consented to the prosecution, the charge shall be explained to the person accused but he shall not be called upon to plead and the provision of the law for the time being in force relating to criminal procedure shall be modified accordingly.

Time limit for prosecution of offences

- 31A. (1) Notwithstanding any time limit for the prosecution of offences provided by any law, a complaint may be made or an information laid in respect of an offence under section 3, 14(5), 14A(5), 14C(6) or 33A within 2 years from the time when the matter of such complaint or information respectively arose.
- (2) Notwithstanding any time limit for the prosecution of offences provided by any law, a complaint may be made or an information laid in respect of an offence under section 13(3), 13(4), 29 or 30(1) within 1 year from the time when the matter of such complaint or information respectively arose.

Alternative convictions, and amending particulars

- 32. (1) If, on the trial of any person for any offence under Part II, it is not proved that the accused is guilty of the offence charged but it is proved that the accused is guilty of some other offence under Part II, the accused may, notwithstanding the absence of consent under section 31 in respect of such other offence, be convicted of such other offence, and be liable to be dealt with accordingly.

- (2) If on the trial of any person for any offence under Part II there is any material variance between the particulars of the offence charged and the evidence adduced in support thereof, such variance shall not, of itself, entitle the accused to an acquittal of the offence charged if, in the opinion of the court, there is prima facie evidence of the commission of that offence, and in such a case the court may, notwithstanding the absence of consent under section 31 in respect of the particulars supported by the evidence adduced, make the necessary amendment to the particulars, and shall thereupon read and explain the same to the accused and the parties shall be allowed to recall and examine on matters relevant to such amendment any witness who may have been examined and, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), to call any further witness.
- (3) If an amendment is made under subsection (2) after the case for the prosecution is closed no further witness may be called by the prosecution other than such and on such matters only as it would, apart from the provisions of this subsection, be permissible to call and put in evidence in rebuttal.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall exclude the application of any other law whereby a person may be found guilty of an offence other than that with which he is charged.

Effect of conviction of an offence under this Promulgation

33. Any person convicted of an offence under Part II of this Promulgation shall, by reason of such conviction, be disqualified for a period of 10 years from the date of such conviction from -

33A. (1) Where a person has been convicted of an offence under Part II, a court may, on the application of the prosecution or on its own motion, where it considers to be in the public interest so to do, order that the convicted person be prohibited from taking or continuing employment, whether temporary or permanent and whether paid or unpaid –

- (a) in the case where the convicted person was employed by a corporation or a public body at the time of or prior to his conviction, as a director or manager or in such other capacity concerned with, whether directly or indirectly, the management of that corporation or any public body or any corporation that is a subsidiary of that corporation or any public body; or
- (b) in the case where the convicted person was practicing any profession or was otherwise self-employed at the time of or prior to his conviction, in the practice of his profession or in the business, or class of business, in which he was so employed, as the case may be;

(c) in other cases, as a partner or as a manager of or in such other capacity concerned with, whether directly or indirectly, the management of such partnership, firm or person or such class of partnership, firm or person; and

(d) for such period not exceeding 7 years, as the court may determine.

(2) A person in respect of whom an order under subsection (1) has been made may at any time during the continuance in force of the order apply to the court for the order to be varied or cancelled.

(3) On an application under subsection (2) the court shall consider all the circumstances including any changes in the applicant's circumstances since the making of the order and whether it would be in the public interest for the order to be varied or cancelled.

(4) Not less than 7 days before the hearing of an application under subsection (2) the person applying shall give written notice to the Director of Public Prosecutions and to the Commissioner of his intentions and on any hearing of an application the Director of Public Prosecutions and the Commissioner shall have the right to appear and be heard.
